

BLEW UP A BRIDGE
AND TRIED TO KILL.MOB AT WICHITA, KANSAS, DE-FIED THE OFFICERS.

Rock Island Train Was Run Past Without Stopping and Shots Were Fired at the Engineer—Bloodshed Is Feared—Troops On the Scene in Pennsylvania.

WICHITA, Kan., June 23.—A mob at Round Pond last night blew up the bridge of the Rock Island with dynamite just outside of the corporate limits. When the train passed the city a short time before without stopping, according to the ordinance, the engineer was shot at twice. Bloodshed is imminent, as the sheriff is powerless.

PUNTAWNEY, Pa., June 23.—The Fifth and Sixteenth regiments and Sheridan troops, N. G. P., under command of Brigadier-General John A. Wiley, reached here at 7 o'clock. The troops mustered nearly 1,000 men and were marched at once to Walston, the scene of the trouble. What the outcome will be it is hard to determine, but there will be no difficulty with the English-speaking miners. The trouble is entirely with the foreigners—Huns, Italians and Slavs. Horatio mines are quiet and will probably remain so.

HOUTSEDALE, Pa., June 23.—Notices were posted by the United Collieries company, at Mount Vernon mines Nos. 5 and 6, notifying the men that the collieries would start on Monday at the old rate of 50 cents per gross ton.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 23.—The McClure Coke company has increased its guards at its plants. Wholesale evictions are to be made Monday, with prospects of trouble to follow. More new men have been imported.

PHILLIPSBURG, Pa., June 23.—Late last night the tippie and a lot of mine and railroad cars at Colorado mine were set on fire and destroyed.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., June 23.—The miners' convention yesterday decided on the continuation of the strike and resolutions to that effect were passed. A resolution was also passed advocating the withdrawal of the strikers from the region in a body if their demands are not granted.

ACCEPT THE COLUMBUS SCALE.

Indiana Miners Yield, but Demanding Resignation of Officers.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 23.—By a vote of 38 to 14 the delegates to the state convention of miners yesterday reconsidered the action of last Saturday and accepted the Columbus scale, but with a strongly worded protest. The resignation was demanded of all the officers of the United Mine Workers who signed the agreement. The vote on this proposition was 32 to 26. The block coal delegates did not vote on the proposition to accept the scale because the block miners at a mass meeting Wednesday had already done so. Work is to be resumed next Monday.

BRAZIL, Ind., June 23.—The grand jury found nine indictments in the Barr murder case instead of eight. The additional man is Samuel Murringer. The cases will be tried at a special term July 9.

ULTIMATUM TO MASSILLON MINERS

Operators Say the Men Must Work or Their Places Will Be Filled.

MASSILLON, Ohio, June 23.—The Massillon operators threw the striking miners into a commotion yesterday by announcing that unless they agreed to go to work at 60 cents per ton their places would be taken by others. When the news reached relief headquarters one of the men there said: "If an experienced man in this district can not make a living at 60 cents I am pretty sure a stranger can't, and the best way to prove it is to turn them into the mines and see how long they will stay."

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 23.—The executive board of the Ohio Division of the United Mine Workers has prepared a circular appealing to the miners to return to work. A committee representing 3,500 miners yesterday met the Hocking and Sunday Creek Valley operators to arrange the scale for machine mining on the 60 cent rate for pick mining. An agreement was finally reached to pay three-fifths of the price of pick mining for machine work.

MINERS DOWN ON THE SCALE.

Northern Illinois Miners Reject Settlement at a Meeting at Streator.

STREATOR, Ill., June 23.—The convention representing the miners of northern Illinois has adjourned after a heated meeting. It determined to repudiate the action of the Columbus convention and to stand for last year's prices. The members invited the operators to meet them, which they declined to do, stating that they had already met the miners' representatives of Columbus, and were ready to carry out the agreement made there, and invited the miners to do the same. On receipt of this declaration the miners declared for a continuation of the strike. The miners of Northern Illinois have isolated themselves by this action, and taken an independent stand. The trouble, it is thought, will now take on a more acute form in this section.

DECATUR, Ill., June 23.—The coal strike ended in Decatur yesterday the union miners made a last effort to get the company to let the 400 men go to work in a body with the union recognized. Superintendent Armstrong for the third time refused to confer with the committee or sign any paper whatever, still adhering to the original proposition that the men if they wanted to go to work must apply individually to the pit boss. The committee returned to the hall and reported. It was then voted that all should apply individually for work. All afternoon there were crowds of men at the two shafts applying for their jobs. The price of mining is yet to be fixed.

PRINCETON, Ill., June 23.—The miners of the Coal Hollow field, embracing three shafts, decided by an almost unanimous vote to resume work next Monday.

MINONK, Ill., June 22.—The miners have reported from a meeting recently held that they will go to work in the Chicago and Minonk Coal and Tile company mine here Monday. This mine was the first in the county to go out.

Employees Complain of a Cut.

DENVER, Colo., June 23.—The employees of the Union Pacific, Denver & Gulf railroad claim that General Superintendent Dunaway has made a sweeping reduction of wages, and that faithful employees have been dismissed without good cause. A committee is preparing a list of grievances to lay before Receiver Trumbull. General Superintendent Dunaway denies that there has been any radical reduction of wages.

Railroad Restores Wages.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 23.—The Wheeling & Lake Erie railway officials announced that the 3-1/4 per cent cut in the wages of the employees April 27 will be restored dating from June 18. This is in fulfillment of the promise made at the time that when the coal strike ended and the road's business regained its normal volume wages should be restored.

Reception to the Indiana Militia.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 23.—Two thousand people attended the reception last night at the state house in honor of the militia that has been on duty in the mining regions. Speeches were made by Gov. Matthews, Major Denny, President Sloan of the board of trade and ex-Gov. Hanna.

Miners Return to Work.

TAYLORSVILLE, Ill., June 23.—The Taylorsville Coal company fixed a scale of wages yesterday for miners, and about twenty-five applied for work. At a mass meeting of the miners' union last night it was decided that the miners return to work to-day, which they did.

TO TIE UP THE CARS.

American Railway Union Declares a Pullman Boycott.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The American Railway Union decided yesterday to declare a boycott on Pullman cars. The convention held a three hours' executive session, in which resolutions were passed notifying the Pullman people that the union would give them one more chance to submit the differences between the company and its workmen to arbitration and if they did not agree to this or some other plan for a settlement of the strike the proposed boycott would take effect at noon next Tuesday.

George W. Lovejoy, LaSalle, Ill.; R. A. Pollans of Pullman and C. F. Timlin of Road House were sent as a committee with the ultimatum to General Manager T. W. Wickes and received from him his final answer in the matter. It was to the effect that the Pullman company absolutely, unqualifiedly refused to enter into any consideration whatever of the Pullman strike with the Railway Union. There the conference ended and the committee withdrew, returned to the convention hall, and reported results. Thereupon, amid wild shouts of applause, the convention passed a motion endorsing the action of the committee and officially ordering the boycott. The officers of the Pullman company profess to have no fear as to the result of such a movement as is threatened, but labor people are confident this action will compel the company to make terms with them.

R. G. DUNN'S REVIEW OF TRADE Situation Not As Good As Was Expected—Failures for the Week.

NEW YORK, June 23.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "The week has been rich in promise but poor in performance. It was confidently promised that exports of gold would cease, but they have not. It was promised that the end of the coal strike would bring immediate recovery of industries, but partial resumption of work discloses comparative scantiness of demand for products."

Operations in wheat, advanced the price 1 1/2 cents, though western receipts were only 1,381,510 bushels, against 2,369,185 last year, and Atlantic exports only 555,931 bushels, against 2,562,098 last year. Corn advanced, but again receded, with small exports and fairly large receipts. Cotton declined a sixteenth, but recovered. The visible stock of American here and abroad is 2,512,990 bales, against 2,582,573 last year, and there is every reason to expect an increased yield.

It was confidently expected that the settlement of tariff rates on textiles by the senate would improve the condition of textile manufacturers. But there is scarcely any evidence of such a result as yet, the large sales of cotton being distinctly traceable to more seasonable weather and larger retail sales and to further concessions by sellers. The stock of print cloths at Fall River and Boston is over a million pieces, but the accumulation continues. The orders for fall are limited and staples are irregular in price.

Wool is less active and rather weaker, with sales about equal to half a full consumption—3,252,541 pounds, against 2,989,800 for the same week last year and 5,413,550 in 1892. For three weeks of June the sales have been 8,879,124 pounds against 16,933,650 in 1892. There is much disappointment that the partial termination of the coal strike does not promptly enlarge the demand for iron and steel products, which is evidently too narrow as yet to support such increase of production.

Failures during the week are 214 in the United States, against 273 last year, and 25 in Canada, against 14 last year.

RIVER RISING AT WICHITA.

Arkansas Breaks Its Banks and Floods a Part of the City.

It is probable the city will be inundated. The seventeenth street bridge is in great danger and if it collapses it will probably cause the destruction of eleven bridges below it. Reports from the west say that another body of high water is coming down and the people are greatly alarmed.

TAR AND FEATHERS
PUT ON A GENERAL.COMMANDER OF COLORADO
MILITIA OUTRAGED.

Inveigled From His Hotel at Midnight and Taken to a Suburb Where the Tar Brush Is Applied in the Presence of Bound and Helpless Policemen.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 23.—Adj.-Gen. Tarsney of the state militia was abducted shortly after midnight this morning, being carried away from his hotel by a band of masked men. It was realized that violence to the general was contemplated and police hastened in pursuit. They found that Tarsney had been inveigled from his hotel and rushed into a carriage which headed for Austin Bluff, a suburb. Here the police overtook the abductors, but were overpowered and forced to look on while General Tarsney was tarred and feathered. He was then bundled into the carriage and told to leave town. Searchers were out all this morning but were unable to find him. Tarsney aroused the antagonism of the miners by leading the troops in the Cripple Creek affair.

STATE NEWS FROM THE CAPITOL Personal Controversy Between Harris and Hill—Anti Option Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—In the tariff discussion in senate yesterday Mr. Kyle took the floor. He made a general argument in favor of the income tax, dwelling on the decline in farm values in the west, and the gradual concentration of wealth in the hands of the few. He argued that the protective system had been responsible for the concentration of wealth in the hands of the few, and that it was just and equitable that the few should bear the share of the burden of taxation which their wealth made them able to bear.

At the conclusion of Mr. Kyle's speech, Mr. Vest offered four additional amendments to the income tax sections. The most important was one to reduce the exemption from $4,000 to $3,000; another exempted from the operation of the tax building and loan associations making loans only to their shareholders; another provides that in reckoning the profits of corporations for taxation actual operating expenses, losses and interest on fixed indebtedness shall be excluded.

Mr. Teller supported the income tax proposition. He quoted from the utterance of some of the leaders of the republican party, past and present, who advocated the income tax in the past. Oliver P. Morton had characterized it as the "most just and equitable of all taxes." Senator Sherman had eulogized it, as had Senator Morrill of Vermont.

Mr. Patton, the new republican senator from Michigan, followed with a set speech against the general features of the tariff bill. He spoke of the income tax feature in particular. He argued the income tax levied during the war had been a failure. The discrimination against the farmer and the wool-grower in the tariff bill, he said, bore with special severity on Michigan. He depicted the tariff bill as a whole as being sectional in the extreme.

Mr. Allen repelled the idea, covertly or openly advanced by the opponents of the income tax, that the populists had no regard for property. He declared vehemently that congress was in the hands of the money power. By the legislation forced by money influence fabulous and dishonest fortunes had been built up in this country. At the conclusion of Mr. Allen's remarks, Mr. Jarvis, Senator Vance's successor from North Carolina, made his maiden speech in support of the income tax.

It was 6 o'clock when Mr. Jarvis finished, and Mr. Hill, who desired to reply to some of the remarks to-day, asked Mr. Harris, in charge of the bill, to yield to an adjournment. Mr. Harris said that he regretted that he could not comply with the request. The country was entitled to know at the earliest possible moment what the fate of this bill was to be. The debate had been going on since April 2 and he regretted that he was unable to grant the request. Mr. Hill called attention to the fact that this was the first time this privilege had been refused.

Mr. Harris replied hotly, and a most bitter personal controversy took place between the two senators. Finally Mr. Harris yielded, but in doing so he gave notice that to-day he should ask the senate to sit until the tariff bill was finally completed in the committee of the whole and reported to the senate. Then, at 7:30, the senate adjourned.

Sensors Harris and Aldrich were in conference and after they separated both expressed the opinion that the senate would conclude consideration of the tariff bill in committee of the whole before the close of to-day, and that the bill would be disposed of and ready for return to the house before adjournment Tuesday.

HATCH IS NOW HAPPY.

His Anti-Option Bill Passes by a Fair Majority.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Immediately on convening yesterday the house went into committee of the whole on the anti-option bill. The bill was read by sections for amendments and Mr. Aldrich of Illinois offered the first amendment inserting "four" in the list of agricultural products affected by the bill. The amendment was adopted on division—93 to 33.

The house then, by 81 to 74, adopted an amendment offered by Representative C. W. Stone of Pennsylvania exempting thirty day options from the provisions of the bill. It was an unexpected defeat. Mr. Hatch and others amid great confusion raised the point of no quorum. Mr. Hatch said the amendment if adopted would destroy the bill. On a demand for tellers the vote on the Stone amendment was 92 to 92, and it was thereby lost by a tie.

An amendment was offered by Mr. Lacey (rep., Iowa) providing that in case a seller described in this act shall in fact be the owner of the property contracted to be sold at the time of the sale failure to deliver at the time fixed in the contract, when caused by delay in transportation or the fault of the carrier, shall be a sufficient excuse for the non-payment of the final stamp tax provided for in this act. Adopted.

Mr. Hatch was then recognized and was given an hour to close the debate on the bill.

The committee having arisen the first year and may vote being on Mr. Cox's amendment, as amended by Mr. Boatner's amendment, permitting future delivery sales in the course of business, was disagreed to—11 to 129.

Mr. Black of Georgia moved to recommit the bill to the committee on judiciary, with instructions to present a bill to prevent inter-state dealing in futures. It was declared out of order.

Mr. Hartman (rep., Mont.) offered a resolution to recommit the bill, with instructions to report it back with an amendment for the free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. Ruled out on a point of order.

Mr. Boatner (dem., La.) then moved to recommit the bill with instructions to report a bill limiting the taxation proposed by the bill to transactions between citizens of different states.

Lost.

The bill then passed—149 to 87. Immediately after the passage of the bill the general deficiency appropriation bill was taken up. After a few minutes spent in explanation of the bill by Mr. Sayers, who is in charge of it, in place of Mr. Breckinridge of Kentucky, the committee rose, and at 5 o'clock a recess was taken until 8 o'clock in the evening, the session to be devoted to private pension bills.

House to Fight the Sugar Deal.

DIED OF SHEER GRIEF OVER HIS DEFEAT.

D. H. RUST'S END HASTENED BY CHAGRIN.

Former Janesville Man Was General Agent of a New York Company And Was Overwhelmed by His Failure to Secure the First Prize For Increased Business.

Disappointment at not getting first prize in a contest is the cause attributed for the death of D. H. Rust. Mr. Rust whose death was mentioned in last evening's Gazette, passed away at 10:30 Thursday night, aged forty-two years. The remains will be brought to this city for interment tonight.

Mr. Rust was Chicago's general agent of the New York Life Insurance Company. Once a year the company gives prizes for the largest showing made by agents, and the agents all over the country participate in the contest. This year it was held in Chicago June 1. Mr. Rust aimed at getting first prize, and to this end he worked sixteen to eighteen hours a day for several weeks previous to the date set for the contest.

When the eventful day arrived Mr. Rust felt confident that he had written up a larger business than any of his competitors. The Chicago district is one of the largest in the country, and it necessitated much travel for the general agent. Mr. Rust entered the contest with so much enthusiasm that he thought of nothing else. He refused to take a rest when his family noticed the ill effects of his overwork. On the morning of the day of the contest Mr. Rust nearly collapsed. He was suffering from nervous prostration, but with indomitable will and buoyed up with the conviction that he would be awarded first prize he kept on his feet when he should have gone to bed.

Went Home a Heart Broken Man.

When the committee on awards decided that Mr. Rust was entitled to only second prize, the disappointment he experienced was bitter. He went home a heartbroken man. The next day he was called to Joliet on business for the company. He was taken sick and was brought home that same night. Brain fever resulted, and he died three weeks after the day of the contest.

Mr. Rust was one of the best known insurance men in the west. He came to Chicago two years ago from Rockford, Ill. He was with the Northwestern Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee for six or seven years prior to going with the New York Life. When he went to Rockford as local representative of the New York Life, he resigned the agency of the Northwestern at Janesville. Mr. Rust was remarkably successful in his new field, and his work attracted the attention of the home office. He was offered the general agency of the Chicago district, in recognition of his record made at Rockford.

Rust Led the Country.

"Mr. Rust was a recognized authority on insurance matters," said an official of the New York Life last night, "and if he had lived he would probably have been the foremost man in his line in the country. He had a peculiar fitness for the insurance business, and his name is well known all over the west in insurance circles. His death under the circumstances is extremely sad. Mr. Rust entered the contest with the firm determination to get first prize, and the disappointment preyed so heavily upon him that his mind gave way. During the last week of the contest I noticed a great change in Mr. Rust and I advised him to withdraw. But he was a man who would not stop at anything. I will never forget the expression that overspread his face when it was announced that someone else had won first prize. Such bitter disappointment was never before depicted on the face of an unsuccessful candidate for honors. He was a man of large stature, and it was a pitiful sight to see him tremble at the finding of the judges."

POET QUIET OVER HIS FORTUNE

Crawford Talks About His Wealth in a Matter Of Fact Way.

Jack Crawford is happy over the fortune he is likely to get but makes no boasts of what he will do. Said he to a reporter:

"I shall go to New York early in July and hold a conference with the claimants now living in the east. Then I shall sail for the old family home in Scotland. But I want to say that I go more to satisfy my relatives than from personal election. While I have not the slightest doubt that the 'King' Wallace estate rightfully belongs to my mother's family, it is another thing to get the property. It's a good deal like a freshly located prospector's claim. There may be a rich pay streak in it, but it will take a big lot of digging to get the dust out of it. But I do not wish my relatives to feel that I am indifferent to their interests in the matter, and I shall go to reconnoiter and see if I can develop a fighting chance for them as well as for myself.

"Whether or not I succeed in finding the desired missing links in the chain of evidence, my trip will be in no way lost to me. Best of all my trip will be the visit which I shall pay to my old north Ireland home where my childhood was spent. I remember how my mother, from our cottage door, used to point out across the channel the 'Heelands o' Scotland,' where her own childhood was spent. It is one of the most beautiful and picturesque spots in Ireland. I shall also visit by invitation, William Black, the novelist, and George R. Syme, the author of 'Ole Joe.' I have long been acquainted with them by correspondence—the result of their coming across some stray bits of my frontier verse and sketch work which took their fancy sufficiently to cause them to write to me. The same kind of fortunate accident also brought to Mr. Gladstone's notice some of my work and I am fortunate enough to have an invitation to visit him at Hawarden."

MRS. YUENGST PREFERS AMERICA

Mrs. Theodore Yuengst, the widow of the late Dr. Yuengst, has been offered a position in one of the German hospitals of Chicago, and she will remain in Janesville some time, or until she settles up the affairs of her late husband. At first it was said Mrs. Yuengst would return to her old home in Germany, but she now announces that she has no desire to go back, preferring to remain in America.

MORE LIFE IN LEAF AS JUNE WANES.

BUYERS RIDING THE COUNTY FOR '93 GOODS.

Prices Are Kept Below Five Cents as a Rule and Most of the Sales Are At Prices Very Much Below That Point—New Crop All Set.

There has been more of a movement in '93 leaf throughout the county during the last few days. Culton, of Edgerton, who has bought more than any three other dealers this year, is riding the county, and the Henshaws have just put a representative out. The Edgerton Reporter says most of the dealers have an aversion to paying over five or six cents as the outside limit for '93 tobacco, while the great bulk of the sales fell below these figures. A start however has been made towards the movement of last year's crop in this section and if growers are content to take the going figures we see no reason why it should not continue to move. Recent sales are: J. A. Decker Ges. '92 at 5 c. G. L. Chapin, 13c. '90-'91 at 10¢; Phil. Riley, 30 c. '92 at 9 & 3c.; Thomas Burns, 16c. '92 at 8½ & 2c. D. McCarthy 15c. '92 at 8¢/2c. Thos. Hartzell, 16c. at 9½¢; Jos. Atlesey, 13c. at 5, 3½¢; Ole Erickson, 14c. at 5½¢; Henry Warner, 37c. '92-'93 at 3½¢; Nels Hoveland, 27c. '93-5½¢; K. Gunderson, 7c. '93 at 4½¢; F. W. Brinkhoff, 23c. '93 at 4½¢; Dan Sullivan, 7a at 4½¢; Cunningham Bros., 5½a at 4½¢; Albert Higgins, 16c. at 4½¢; M. McCue, 15c. at 4½¢; J. C. Mullenbry, 20c. at 3½¢; John Cruse & Co., 20c. at 5, 3½¢.

Heavy rains fell from the 15th to 17th covering the tobacco section and putting an end to the drouth that was seriously delaying the planting of the new crop. Since then soil was left in excellent condition and transplanting has been carried on with all the help the growers were able to command. The close of this week sees the bulk of the '94 crop in the fields. The crop is therefore out about as early as the usual date.

WISCONSIN CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

Men of the Badger Regiments Will Meet in Madison July 3.

The annual meeting of the Wisconsin Cavalry Association will be held at Madison, Wis., on the 3d and 4th of July, 1894. The four regiments will meet at the halls set apart for their separate use early in the afternoon of the 3d, and hold their regimental reunions. In the evening the association will meet at the assembly chamber and hold its annual session. The address will be delivered by E. A. Calkins, of the Third regiment. Short speeches will be made by the representatives to the three other regiments. A fine literary and musical program will be given.

On the 4th there will be a magnificent military celebration of the national anniversary, and the visiting comrades will be made guests of honor. It will be a great opportunity for a social reunion and a reviving of old memories. Comrades let us all meet again while strength still remains. It is not many years before taps will sound for us all; and each year some valued comrade drops from the ranks whose hand we can never take again. Let us be generous to each other and all rally to the call. Come to the reunion yourself and pass the word along the line.

The usual concessions have been promised at the Madison hotels. Railroad rates can be ascertained at your nearest station; the ordinary 4th of July excursion rates extend two hundred miles from Madison. This notice will serve in lieu of direct regimental notices if not received. Take receipts for money paid for railroad tickets.

A number of horses were shipped to Milwaukee to-day.

Baby Love.
Baby love and baby kisses
Are the sweetest of earthly blisses.
When my babe is on my breast
Babe and I know perfect rest.
Baby's little hands, so soft,
I pick them up and kiss them oft;
I sometimes wish she would always stay
Dainty and pure as she is to-day.
Darling sweet, unopened flower,
Silence and white, it is thy dower,
I dread to have thee blossom out;
Would keep thee a babe, to laugh and shout.
And yet, I would have thee thrive and grow
Healthy and strong, with cheeks aglow
And I long to hear thy baby voice call
Mama, the sweetest name of all.
Happy, blissful, motherhood
The time in life when we do the most good
I would not change with anyone to night,
I'm content with my darling babe in sight.
ARRIE A. FORD.

Concordia Picnic.
The Concordia society will give a grand picnic at Crystal Springs next Sunday. Smith's orchestra will furnish the music. There will be chorus singing, games of various kinds, and a shoot for a red, white and blue sheep. Arrangements have been made for both the Columbia and Enterprise to run every half hour. A good time is anticipated and everybody invited.

DON'T WAIT FOR COOL SUNDAYS.

The Men of the City Can Aid the Y. M. C. A. Meetings.

The men's meeting Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. rooms is not for a few men or any special class. All men are cordially invited. Men who talk about right principle and the uplifting of manhood—your duty is to be present. Your presence will be worth something. This is your opportunity. To be present at the men's meetings cool days, bright days, or when you feel like it, is selfishness. Sacrifice your own pleasure to be present. J. M. Whitehead leads the meeting tomorrow afternoon. Inspiring music. Great opportunities and a welcome to all.

ROCK'S TAX HEAVIER THAN OTHERS BEAR.

STATE EQUALIZATION PUTS US VERY HIGH.

Only Two Counties in the State Pay a Tax On More Property Than Does Old Rock—Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, La Crosse, Racine, Sheboygan and Superior All Dodge.

The state of Wisconsin values the real and personal property in Rock county this year at $22,760,000. So says the state board of equalization at Madison, which has just completed the apportionment of the state. The total valuation of the state last year was $654,000,000, which the board this year reduces to $600,000,000. The reduction in Rock county from last year is $2,728,000, the sum fixed last year being $25,488,000. Rock county stands third highest in the list, Milwaukee being $125,000,000; Dane $26,400,000; Rock, $22,760,000. Then comes Dodge, $19,179,000; Sheboygan, $18,130,000; Winnebago, $17,170,000; Douglas, $17,922,000; Fond du Lac, $16,680,000; Racine, $15,127,000; La Crosse, $12,150,000, and then the valuation drops on down until Vernon county is reached, $49,350. The valuation by counties is quite interesting. The thriving cities of La Crosse, Oshkosh, Racine, Sheboygan, Superior, Fond du Lac, in fact all except Milwaukee and Madison, stand aside in paying taxes and give the capital of Rock county first place. This is gratifying but expensive.

COAL FAMINE NEARLY OVER.

Local Dealers Expect a Full Supply of Fuel Within the Next Week.

Janesville's coal famine is about over, local dealers say. They have received advices from the eastern firms that the strike is over and the men are returning to work; also that in a very short time the price of soft coal will be almost as low as ever. The report in The Chicago Herald that the miners of hard coal contemplate striking is discredited for the reason that the men cannot afford it. The price of hard coal is as low as ever, and there is no danger of the supply being exhausted.

THE LONGEST SPEECH.

A Twenty-Six Hour Effort to Kill an Objectionable Bill.

"I was recently introduced," said Albert H. Steele, of Portland, Ore., "to a legislator who, I believe, has the record for making the longest continuous speech ever delivered. He is a member of the legislature of British Columbia, in which there is no such thing as senatorial courtesy, so that a long speaker cannot get a few minutes' rest for refreshments, as he generally can in the upper house of this country. The record breaker, who is of French descent, is an old college athlete, and on one occasion last session he was put up by the opposition to talk a bill to death.

"The majority saw through the device at once and put every obstacle in the way of the speaker. Not deterred by objections and points of order, the old athlete husbanded his strength and spoke steadily, without any longer pauses than were necessary to moisten his parched throat with an occasional innocent drink, twice around the clock. He started at 10 o'clock in the morning, kept steadily at his work all the afternoon, evening and night, and did not even pause when the lights were turned out the following morning. Eye witnesses tell me that as the morning wore on his voice was little more than a whisper and his eyes were bloodshot. He bore up manfully, however, and did not sit down until the clock struck 12, when the bill became dead by lapse of time, and he secured a respite which was well earned, even if his cause was not a very noble one. He speaks of his twenty-six hour effort with a shudder, and says he would rather walk 100 miles than go through the ordeal again."

TURNING THE TABLES.

The Negro Met the Lawyer on His Own Ground.

A Kentucky lawyer was standing on the steps of the Covington post-office the other day, when an old colored man came up and, touching his hat, asked:

"Kin you tell me, is dis de place where dey sells postage stamps?"

"Yes, sir; this is the place," replied the lawyer, seeing a chance for a little quiet fun; "but what do you want with postage stamps, uncle?"

"To mail a letter, sah, of course."

"Well, then, you needn't bother about stamps; you don't have to put any on this week."

"I don't?"

"No, sir."

"Why—for not?"

"Well, you see, the conglomeration of the hypothenuse has differentiated the parallelogram so much that the consanguinity don't emulate the ordinary effervescence, and so the government has decided to send letters free."

The old man took off his hat dubiously, shook his head, and then, with a long breath, remarked:

"Well, boss, all dat may be true, an' I don't say it ain't; but s'posed dat de eccentricity of the aggregation transubstantiates de ignominiousness of de puppindickeler and sublimites de puspicity, dat de government would confiscate dat dar letter? I guess I'd jest better put some stamps on anyhow, fer luck!"

And the old man passed solemnly down the street.

HISTORIC TREES.

The yew is said to attain the greatest longevity of all European trees.

The yews of Kingley Bottoms, in Sussex, Eng., mark the site of a battle fought between the Saxons and Danes in 900 A. D.

The Ketworth chestnut, near Gloucester, Eng., was a boundary tree in King Stephen's reign, and is spoken of as an old tree in the annals of King John's reign. It measures fifty-three feet in circumference.

In England there is a specimen of the tulip tree known to have been planted 200 years ago on Lord Homes' estate in Berwickshire. At two feet from the ground it measures twenty-three feet in circumference.

The yew at Ankernyke House, near Staines, is believed to be over 1,000 years old. Beneath it was signed the Magna Charta, the keystone of English liberty, and beneath this same tree Henry VIII. and Anne Boleyn had their trysting place.

EVERYBODY HAS TO PAY

The salaries paid the police in New York are found to be only a third of their incomes.

One of the items of blackmail is $60,000 a year from new members of the force.

After paying his initiation the new swinger of a club proceeds to build up his private revenue from all possible sources, tapering off with the peanut stands.

Every charge made by those newspaper correspondents in connection with the sugar trust scandal has been proven, but the United States senate has not requested the United States district attorney to enter a noli pros.

That sugar trust has yet to be ratified by the people. Members of the house should not forget this when the time comes for them to vote on the sugar schedule of the tariff bill. The people will vote next November.

Mr. Croker's statement that he would have appeared before the New York investigating committee if asked to do so, would have been more convincing made on this side of the Atlantic, instead of the other.

"Ig." Donnelly thinks that the adoption of circus methods will help populism in Minnesota. He is wrong, as usual. Minnesota farmers are too level headed for anything to help populism.

Editor Howell, of the Atlanta Constitution, is honest, if not politic. When asked why Georgia favored the income tax, he said: "None of our people have any incomes to tax."

In view of the fate of the Chicago platform it would be wise for the democrats to make their next campaign without any platform.

SAYING AND DOING.

"Is the sermon done?" was the question asked of an elderly lady as she left the church door.

"No," was her answer, "it's all been said, and now we have got to do it."

This wise answer reveals that the elderly lady in her long life had become convinced of the marked difference between saying and doing.

To promise is one thing; to execute one's promise is another matter and one that is often extremely difficult to fulfill and it's right here that there comes the difference between "saying" and "doing."

We have been saying to you for the last ten years about the uniformly high character of our goods; about the extremely low margin of profit we have added to the cost and about our cash money-saving method of buying and our constantly increasing trade and new customers continually being liberal purchasers convince us that we are really "Doing and Saying" that is we are doing what we are saying.

Columbia Excursion a Big One

The special train for Columbia, Wis., left last night about 10 o'clock. A large crowd was aboard and everybody seemed happy. The number of level headed people who accompanied the Columbia folks to their new town, is ample proof that Clark county is one of the best in the state, and will soon be recognized as such. AFTER A HOT WEEK.FAST TRAVELING ON THE LAST DAY.

Monbars and Logan T. Distance the Other Two Horses in the 2:40 Class—Luna Lowers Her Record to 2:21 3/4—Ethel A. Wins a Purse.

Janesville's race meeting closed today. It has been fairly successful and has drawn a large number of people to town. For the first time since the city has attained prominence in the racing line, a six day meeting has been given. There has been but little friction and not a fine has been imposed or any punishment meted out to driver or owner.

There was a good crowd at the track this afternoon and the day was more comfortable owing to the cloudy sky and cooler breeze. The first race was the unfinished event for three year old pacers, which yesterday's rain caused to be postponed. Ethel A. was the favorite.

It only took one heat this afternoon to decide the race, Ethel A. overhauling Marks maid at the three fourths pole and winning by several open lengths in the remarkably fast time of 2:17.

The race being two heats in three, this was decisive.

The second race was the purse for 2:37 trotters. Sister Ethel, M. E. McHenry's horse, was the favorite bet. Knowing ones said: "Watch Hillberry!" The trotter had won the '30 class race at Freeport, the best time being 2:27. Sister Ethel, however, had finished a good second in the three heats that Jersey Belle won when she carried off the 2:50 trotting purse in 27 1/2, 32, and 23 1/2.

Monbars had an easy thing in the 2:40 pacing class, winning the heat easily in 2:23 1/2 with Logan T. a fairly good second.

SHARPERS WORK THE TOWN.
Flim-Flam Artists Tried Many Stores Last Evening and Today

The cash in the till did not tally with the register in a west side saloon last night.

One dollar was missing. And then it occurred to the bartender that the "change racket" had been played on him.

He remembered that during the evening a well dressed man called for a glass of beer. A two dollar bill was thrown down for the bar tender to change, which he did, but in the deal he remembered that the well dressed man carried away the two dollar bill. It finally struck the bartender after thinking the matter over that his customer also carried off a silver dollar that belonged in the cash drawer.

The sharper made several attempts to work the change racket last night. W. G. Palmer, of Palmer & Stevens drug store, was too quick for him, and the fellow apologized for making a mistake. He struck Bart Kehoe in the cigar store, but soon found that Bart was not the man to trifle with.

"Do you catch many Janesville people on that racket?" asked Fred Clemons.

He smiled, and replied that suckers frequently took it all right, but thought Janesville had been played before.

It is said that quite a number were caught, but the sum being only one dollar, have kept still, preferring to lose the small amount than take the laugh of others for becoming victims.

LOSER NEEDED AN AMBULANCE
Fight Between Sullivan and Smith at the "Five Points" Last Night.

John L. Sullivan was lodged with Sheriff Bearlast night on charge of drunk and disorderly conduct. This morning "Shube" Smith was placed behind the bars on similar charge. Sullivan and Smith got into a fight up at the "Five Points" last evening, Smith being knocked out on the first round. The ambulance was called, but Smith was hurried off to his home and eluded arrest until this morning. The report that a stranger had been seriously hurt by the cars circulated as the ambulance rattled towards the depot, but it proved untrue.

PAVING BEGINS NEXT TUESDAY
Aldermen Disposed to Wait Until After the Fourth of July

John Martin has finally been heard from, and the Oshkosh contractor sent word that he expects to be in Janesville next Tuesday ready to commence his paving contract. The highway committee were of the opinion at first that the paving could be completed before the Fourth of July, but are now convinced that it cannot, and are talking of having the contractor postpone tearing up the streets until after the Fourth.

WILL BRUNSON'S HOME ROBBED
Young Man Who Boarded in the House Is Under Arrest

W. W. Brunson's house on Wall street, was robbed last evening of some jewelry belonging to Mrs. Brunson. This morning Chief Acheson arrested a young man who occupies a room in the house, and who had the only key besides the one used by the family. The young man is in jail. The officers have no positive evidence other than the possession of the key against him.

LIGHT HOODS HUNG TO-DAY.

Captain Norcross' Men Hard at Work Preparing for the Fourth.

Captain Norcross' force is now engaged in hanging the electric light hoods, preparatory to hanging the arc lamps. The linemen have completed running wires, and everything now points to an electrical illumination by the Fourth of July.

Balloon Ascensions Are Cheaper

It cost the citizens of Janesville $200 to see Professor Craig go up one hundred feet in his balloon. It will cost you only a ride on the steamer Mayflower tomorrow to see Professor Leonard go up six thousand feet and drop with his parachute.

New Potatoes 25 Cents a Peck.

Basis of Judgment.

Mr. Porkingham, of Kansas City—Now, here's a question: Who shall go first in to dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Packer or Mr. and Mrs. McCann? Mrs. Porkingham, with a sneer at his ignorance—Why, there is no question as to who takes precedence! The McCanns kill 200 more hogs a day than the Packers.—Pack.

EIGHT LENT A HAND
TO THE POPULISTS.SPARSE CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

John Hyland Called the Convention, Explaining that It Was At the Instance of Bob Schilling of Milwaukee—Delegates Secured With Great Difficulty.

"I called this convention at the request of Mr. Schilling of Milwaukee, to elect delegates to the state convention in Milwaukee on July 4," said John Hyland of Avon, in calling the populist county convention to order this afternoon in the basement of the court house.

There were ten people present, including the newspaper reporters. The convention lacked enthusiasm and moved slowly. William Grimes upwards of eighty years of age remarked that great things move slowly.

John Hyland was chosen chairman and J. H. Haviland secretary. There being only eight present besides the reporters it was very difficult to select the six delegates as called for. Finally, however, James Cleland, John Hyland, J. H. Haviland, William Beals, C. Sexton, John Stockman and C. H. Storck were named as the delegates to represent the county.

Those present were John Hyland, William Beals and William Grimes, of Avon; John Galletley, James Cleland, C. Sexton and J. H. Haviland, of Janesville. An aged gentleman occupied a seat in one corner of the room, but, like Mr. Galletley and the reporters, took no part in the proceedings.

The Policy of It.

"I say Sam, it is 'policy' to buy your buggies of the Wisconsin Carriage Top Co., as their prices are right and they warrant their work as the best in the market for the money. They have sold over three hundred jobs this year and are now the headquarters for buggies, surreys and that new style turnout called the 'Albion' Stanhope."

Choral Picnic Up the River.

Tomorrow the Concordia will make things merry at Crystal Springs. Smith's full orchestra has been engaged for the occasion. Chorus singing, games of various kinds, and a shoot for a red, white and blue sheep will be among the events. The Columbia and Enterprise will run between the city and grounds every half hour. Everybody's requested to be present, as a gala time will be on hand. The Concordias are great entertainers and never do anything by halves.

Change in the July 4 Parade.

I wish to make the following change in the starting point of parade on the morning of the Fourth of July. The right of line will be at the corner of Academy and West Milwaukee street, instead of High and West Milwaukee streets, the left of line resting towards the C. & N. W. freight depot. The line of parade will cover all of West Milwaukee street.

B. H. BALDWIN, marshal.

Street Car Parties Are Cheaper.

A round trip on the street cars now costs ten cents instead of fifteen, and "street car parties" are more popular than ever. Getting on at Main street a passenger can ride to the cemetery, then back to the end of the Milton avenue line and down to Main street for a dime. To do this he must call for a round trip ticket. A good many Janesville people cool off with a ride in the open car every evening, preferring the car to a buggy.

One of the first packages of this year's Japan tea in the United States is now in our store. You can have it just as it is or mixed with the old tea. It will be better mixed, as the new is so very fragrant, you might not know whether you were drinking tea or walking on the clouds. GRUBB BROS.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

Those Little Slaves,
The kidneys, separate from the blood, as it passes through them, impurities for which the final medium of liberation from the system is the bladder. When their function is suspended, direful results ensue. Among these are dropsy, Bright's disease, diabetes and maladies which terminate in some one of these. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stimulates the kidneys not as an unmediated alcoholic stimulant would by exciting them, but by gently impelling them to renewed action and purifying their activity and vigor. Thus the blood is once more insured purification and the organs themselves saved from destruction. Malaria, constipation, liver complaint, nervousness, dyspepsia and rheumatism are all thoroughly remedied by the Bitters, which is, moreover, a most thorough appetizer, general tonic and sleep promoter. Use it regularly, let semi-occasionally.

Wise Wolf.

The portly, well-dressed gentleman, whose specialty was chattel mortgages, arose to address the meeting of the unemployed.

Said he: "The chief cause of distress in this prosperous land is a lack of frugality and thrift. You talk of the wolf at the door. He never comes to my door."

"I guess he's afraid of getting skinned," shouted some irreverent person in the audience, and the portly gentleman sat down.—Mercury.

Different Places.

Mrs. Imperious-Smythe (with an I've-almost-had-to-wait expression)—Where were you, Felice? I've had to ring the last five minutes!

Felice (the new maid)—Shure, mum, I was loking for a book mar-r-k. I was reading Lorrah Jane Libby's "The Master Mechanic's Bride," and I was afraid I'd lose me place.

Mrs. Imperious-Smythe—Well, you've lost it! You can get your wages for the week in the morning.—Truth.

Professional Courtesy.

Two Texas doctors met on the street. "I feel sorry for you. You ought not to be out in this kind of weather. You are a sick man," said Dr. Blister.

"I am not feeling very well," replied Dr. Snover.

"What doctor is treating you?"

"I am prescribing for myself."

"You shouldn't do that. You are liable to be arrested for attempted suicide."—Alex Sweet, in Texas Sittings.

No Recommendation.

"How's business?" asked Jimson of the furniture man.

"Bad. Our advertising agent made a fool of himself," said the dealer.

"How was that?"

"Oh, he bragged too much. In dwelling on the furniture of our make he said that it was always in the van, and people who have had experience in moving didn't want that kind of furniture."—Harper's Bazar.

In the Dark.

Bobbie Bingo (at his mother's dinner party)—This is the first dinner mamma would let me sit at the table with the company.

One of the Guests—Then you are not very well acquainted here, are you, Bobbie?

Bobbie—No, sir. I don't even know who all this silver belongs to.—Brooklyn Life.

Getting Even.

Flat-Hunter—Dear me, what a strong smell of boiled cabbage! Is this a usual thing?

Janitor—It happens occasional, mum. There's been a row betune the second an' thurrd flures, an' the second flure is gittin' even.—Judge.

Woman's Way.

It was a dreadful story, the latest scandal out. That Mr. Brown sat down to tell young Mrs. Brown about.

She listened to it, eager, till all of it she heard.

Then cried out: "Stop! I do not care to hear another word!" —Puck.

By All Means.

Hazel—Sandstone has asked me to lend him five dollars, and I don't know whether to do it or not. Would you?

Nutte (earnestly)—I would, old man. He invited me to dine with him this evening.—Life.

EXPOSED IN A JIFFY.

"I assure you, sir, I cannot live without your daughter."

"Oh, you overestimate me."—Fliegende Blaetter.

The Man for the Place.

Editor—You wish a position as proof reader?

Applicant—Yes, sir.

"Do you understand the requirements of that responsible position?"

"Perfectly, sir. Whenever you make any mistakes in the paper just blame 'em on me, and I'll never say a word." —N. Y. World.

Great Delicacy.

Mr. Amy (in telephone office)—Will you please call up Miss Marybone and deliver a message for me?

Operator—Wouldn't you like to speak with her yourself?

Mr. Amy—Oh, no, no! I—the fact is—I dined with an Italian friend and one course consisted of garlic.—Judge.

How He Escaped.

Dashaway—What luck did you have in Texas?

Billboard (the tragedian)—I played to full houses.

Dashaway—That's great luck, old man.

Billboard—Yes. They were so full that they couldn't shoot straight.—Life.

An Explicit Response.

"Did you tell the hired girl that you could not put up with her work?" asked Mr. Slimmies at the dinner-table.

"Yes."

"What did she say?"

"She said that there was nothing keeping me here if I didn't like the place."—Washington Star.

Up to the Times.

Mother—You have drawn the donkey very nicely, Johnny, but you have forgotten one thing. Where is his tail?

Johnny—Oh, that donkey doesn't need any tail. There are no flies on him.—Once a Week.

FARCICAL PALAVER.

Doctor—You're pretty well healed now, Mr. Biggs. Biggs—But I won't be so well healed after I pay your bill.

"Is the jury out?" "Guess it is. Feller what promised 'em $2 apiece got robbed before he'd paid over their cash."

"Just think, captain, the major has actually married the rich old maid." "Obviously he wanted to have his golden wedding at once."

He—Then I understand that you contend for an equality of the sexes. She—Not at all. I don't expect men ever will be quite equal to women.

"You have a bright look, my boy," said the visitor at the school. "Yes, sir," replied the candid youth. "That's because I forgot to rinse the soap off my face good."

"I hope you have not been hasty in accepting this young man. Do you know anything about him?" Daughter—Why certainly I do. His name is Smith, I'm almost certain.

Little Emile, as his sister Elli enters the room with an apple in her hand—Let's play Adam and Eve, sis. Elli—How? Emile—You tempt me with the apple, and I eat it.

"The editor ain't in, but he couldn't settle that bill if he was." "He couldn't?" "No; 'cause I heard him say there was the devil to pay in town this mornin'."

The Irish have always had a delicate satire in their wit, as when a London physician driving up to his own doorway saw a porter closing up his passage with a load of stones. "Take those stones to hell!" cried the angry doctor. "Wouldn't they be more out of your honor's way in the other place?" inquired the ready-witted Pat.

"Mamma," inquired one of those inquisitive youngsters we all know about, even if we don't happen to have two or three of them around the house, "how old am I?" "If you live till your next birthday," she answered, "you'll be five years old." He studied the proposition some time. "Well," he asked at last, "how old will I be if I don't live?"

A Chesterfieldian Physician.

Dr. Reid, the celebrated medical writer, was requested by a lady of literary eminence to call at her house. "Be sure you recollect the address," she said as she quitted the room; "No. 1 Chesterfield street."

"Madam," said the doctor, "I am too great an admirer of politeness not to remember Chesterfield, and I fear, too selfish ever to forget Number One."

The Sex of the Oyster.

Perhaps the most curious thing in the natural history of the oyster is its sex. When a female oyster has parted with her season's eggs, she assumes the male sex. How long this metamorphosis lasts and how often it takes place are still unsolved mysteries.

CURES OTHERS.

BAD COUGH, SPIT UP BLOOD, CONSUMPTION. K. C. McLIN, Esq., of Kemperville, Princess Anne Co., Va., writes: "When I commenced taking your 'Discovery' I was very low with a cough, and at times spit up much blood. I was not able to do the least work, but most of the time I was in bed using it. I was all run-down, very weak, my head was dizzy, and I was extremely despondent. The first bottle I took did not seem to do me much good, but I had faith in the cure and I continued using it until I had taken fifteen bottles, and now I do not look nor feel like the same man. I was one year ago. People are astonished, and say, 'well, last year this time I would not have thought that you would be living now.' I can thankfully say I am entirely cured of a disease which, but for your wonderful 'Discovery,' would have resulted in my death."

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place in war and literature. Solomon Jewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 2d N. Y. Cavalry and of the 10th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They cure the most stubborn cases of indigestion, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."

REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes:

Gentlemen:—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh, when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The good states speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the Hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.

M. E. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:

Gentlemen:—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrh Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held in motion from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.

TESTING BIG PLATES FOR WAR SHIPS.

ARMOR FOR AMERICAN CRUISERS IS BRITTLE.

A 12-Inch Armor Piercing Projectile Smashes An 18-Inch Harveyized Plate and Disappoints the Ordnance Officers.

TWELVE-INCH Carpenter armor-piercing projectile smashed the 18-inch Harveyized side armor plates of the battle ship Indiana into smithereens at Indian Head the other day. The plate was one of a group of ten manufactured by the Bethlehem Iron company, and was tested in the presence of a distinguished party of experts. A second shot finished the work of demolition and left the plate hanging to its oaken back in four big fragments. The 13-inch rifle was not used in attacking the plate. If it had been, the shattering could hardly have been more disastrous. It was not employed, because, under the rule, the plate must measure in width at least seven calibers of the attacking rifle, and as the plate was only ninety inches wide it could be attacked by nothing larger than a 12-inch gun.

AN EIGHTEEN-INCH PLATE AFTER THE PROJECTILE STRUCK IT.

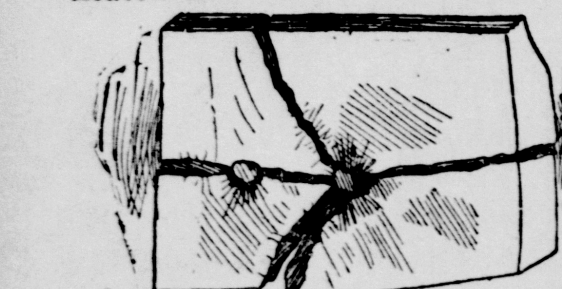

The government has never before tested a plate heavier than seventeen inches, and the importance of these experiments caused them to be observed with an interest that amounted to anxiety. The result is a sore disappointment not only to the Bethlehem Iron company but to the officials of the naval ordnance bureau. It shows that it is questionable whether plates as thick as eighteen inches can be safely Harveyized, and indicates that the makers of guns and armor-piercing shells are still a long way ahead of the manufacturers of armor plates.

The group represented by the plate demolished will not be rejected until another plate has been tested, and the makers are hopeful that the second test piece will make a good record, as it is claimed that the specimen fired at was known to be inferior by reason of internal cracks.

The test was witnessed by half a hundred naval officers and experts who made a trip from the navy yard to the proving ground at Indian Head on the government tug Triton. In the party were Capt. Sampson, chief of the bureau of naval ordnance; commander Cook, Lieutenant-commander Cowden, Prof. Alger, Lieut. Ackerman, Gen. Flaggler and Capt. Birney of the army; Naval Constructor Thompson, Ensigns Andrews, Strauss, Chapin, Field and Key, and Pof. Marvin of the Signal Service. The Bethlehem Iron company was represented by Vice-President Davenport and by Capt. Jacques and Lieut. Meiggs, late of the navy.

After taking a glance at the big rifle Capt. Sampson and his party walked across the little valley and gave the big plate a critical inspection. The immense mass of solid steel was 15 feet 11 inches in length by 7 feet 6 inches in height and 18 inches thick except on the bevel, which began 42 inches from the bottom and tapered to a thickness of 8 inches. The beveled side was turned toward the back, which was of solid oak, 3 feet thick. The plate was held in place by 26 3-inch bolts, averaging about 36 inches in length. The plate was No. 5,107 B, of the Indiana's side-armor, and, as it weighed 33½ tons, represented about $18,000. It was of nickel steel, forged by hydraulic press and tempered by the patented Harvey process.

In this process the plate, after forging, is covered with a layer of charcoal or coke-dust about six inches deep, on top of which is evenly distributed about six inches of firesand. The plate is slowly heated almost to the melting point, at which it is held for several days, when it is allowed to cool very gradually. This operation requires nearly three weeks. The soft steel of the upper surface of the plate absorbs a large quantity of carbon. This carbonized steel is susceptible of a high temper, which makes the face of the plate exceedingly hard. The plate is annealed by being heated and allowed to cool, and is highly tempered by being carried to a high temperature in the furnace and afterward given an oil bath. Finally the plate is heated for the last time, and sprayed with ice water on its tempered surface, while heat is applied to the back to prevent warping and to enable the strains in the plate to adjust themselves to the highly tempered face.

Before the first shot was fired a statement was made which dashed the hopes of those who had expected to see the plate come out ahead of the projectiles. It was said that while the plate was cooling under the water spray, two loud reports were heard, indicating without question to the experts that a large interior crack had developed. The most careful examination, however, failed to locate the crack, in spite of the fact that it was sounded with a powerful steam hammer. As the plate promised to be the poorest of the group of a dozen which it represented, it was selected by the government inspectors for ballistic test, the Bethlehem company consenting to its trial, and relying upon the second plate of the group to prove the efficiency of the armor. Notwithstanding the fact that the company had another chance, its representatives showed considerable nervousness, which was quite natural when it is considered that the plate on trial represented a group worth at least $160,000, and was similar in treatment to another group soon to be tested worth quite as much more.

In speaking of the results of the tests Capt. Sampson said to the World correspondent:

"The behavior of the 18-inch plate to-day was very disappointing, and raises the important question as to how far Harveyizing can be carried in the manufacture of our heaviest plates. There is no doubt that the high temper given to the face of the plate increases the liability to strains in the structure of the steel, and these, in turn, may produce dangerous internal cracks, which usually give no indication of their presence. I am inclined to think, however, that the second plate in the group tested to-day will make a much better showing, and it is probable that all the remaining plates of the group are much better than the one shattered to-day. There is some consolation to be found in the fact that while the shells cracked the plate badly, they probably would not have entered a ship protected by it."

Vice-President Davenport of the Bethlehem Iron company, was decidedly blue, but he said that the remaining plates of the group were certainly superior to that fired at to-day. To-day's test served to emphasize the importance of the considerations which have been persistently urged by the World regarding honesty and care in the manufacture of plates and rigid inspection by the government.

A RUNAWAY PLANET.

Arcturus Running Mad Among the Heavenly Bodies.

Arcturus, which exceeds our sun several thousand times, perhaps, in light-giving power, is apparently a runaway in the universe. As far as is known at present, Arcturus is both the largest and most swiftly moving body in the stellar heavens. Its calculated velocity is no less than 375 miles in a second, or 32,400,000 miles in a day! The direction of its motion is such that it approaches the earth at the rate of 3,450,000 miles a day. But even if it were rushing at us in a straight line, 85,000 years would elapse before the encounter could take place. Nobody has been able to guess how Arcturus got started at its present rate of traveling, or where its journey will end. If it is only a gigantic visitor to our system of suns, then it will pass through the visible universe, and in the course of millions of years disappear from it. And if any member of our system should, through too close approach, become a satellite of Arcturus, it would inevitably be borne away a prisoner into the unfathomed and, by human eyes, unseen depths of illimitable space.

Russet Oranges.

A little item in a New York paper, in which golden russets and small dark russets are incidentally stated to be the best keeping oranges, has called to our mind a very general experience which we have never seen referred to in print. We buy for our own table consumption russet oranges in preference to bright oranges, and yet in our official work we are in constant receipt of requests from orange growers for methods of destroying the rust mite. The hardening of the skin of the orange from the work of the rust mite undoubtedly keeps them juicy, improves them for shipment, and retards decay. The selection of bright oranges was a fad among growers and wholesale buyers which did not last. The time has come when russet oranges for shipment command higher prices, and when remedial treatment for the rust mite is only necessary for a great excess of this acid. The change in public opinion in this matter shows that utility governs even sentiment.—Insect Life.
